All the rights arising from the Shares being transferred by the Selling Shareholder in the Offering and any related rights shall transfer from the Selling Shareholder to the Offeror as of the moment when the Selling Shareholder has been paid the Purchase Price for the Shares sold by him/her in the Offering pursuant to the terms of the Offering. All the Shares are transferred to the Offeror in the Offering together with all the related rights existing at the time of the transfer and that may be created in the future. If after the publication of the Offering and before the publication of the results of the Offering, the Offeror acquires the Shares at a price higher than the Purchase Price or if the Offeror decides to increase the Purchase Price otherwise pursuant to the Rules, as described in chapter 6.1 "Purchase Price and the basis of its determination", the respective higher price shall also apply retroactively to the Offering. In this case, the terms and conditions of the Offering are amended and such amendment is published according to the Rules.

Pursuant to the requirements under § 182² of the SMA, the takeover term shall be extended up to three months after the date of disclosure of the results of the Offering with respect to the Tallink shareholders who did not accept the Offer or submit a Sale Undertaking, if as a result of the Offering at least 9/10 of the share capital of Tallink representing the voting rights is represented by the shares of the Offeror and the general meeting of Tallink has not made the takeover decision provided in § 182¹ of the SMA. 5. BACKGROUND INFORMATION OF THE OFFERING

5.1 Reasons and objectives of the Offering

The Offering is organised as a voluntary takeover offer and the Offeror is under no obligation to organise the Offering pursuant to § 166 of the SMA. The purpose of the Offering is to increase the shareholding of the Offeror in Tallink and offer the shareholders of Tallink the opportunity to divest insofar as considering the low liquidity of the Nasdaq Tallinn Exchange, the bigger investors of Tallink may not have a suitable opportunity to divest on market terms.

The Offeror is making the Offer to all the shareholders of Tallink, except for the Offeror itself. The Offeror wishes to acquire all the Offer Shares. There is no minimum number of Offer Shares.

5.2 The Offeror's intentions regarding the target issuer

The Offeror has no intention to change the business segments, strategy, place of operation or principles of operation of Tallink in the near future, the Offeror also has no immediate plan to apply changes to the performance of the contracts concluded and obligations assumed by the Tallink group companies. Following the Offering, the Offeror will continue to act as a shareholder of Tallink pursuant to the articles of association of Tallink and the applicable law. The Offeror has no immediate intention to amend the articles of association of Tallink.

The above is not the Offeror's waiver of any of its rights under the law and the articles of association as the shareholder of Tallink and the Offeror does not exclude any changes, advances and modifications in the business operations, management or articles of association of Tallink in the future.

5.2.2 Listing on the exchange and intentions regarding the takeover

The Offeror has no immediate intention or interest to initiate proceedings or take steps to delist the Tallink Shares from the main list of Nasdaq Tallinn Stock Exchange or the Nasdaq Helsinki Stock Exchange.

Pursuant to § 182¹ of the SMA, if the offeror has acquired at least 9/10 of the share capital of the target issuer representing the voting rights as the result of a takeover bid, the general meeting of shareholders of the target issuer may decide, at the request of the offeror, on the takeover of the remaining shares belonging to target persons for a fair compensation. A resolution on the takeover of shares belonging to the rest of the target persons shall be adopted if at least 9/10 of the votes represented by shares are in favour. Pursuant to § 182¹ (3) of the SMA, in the case provided above, fair compensation may be paid in money or in liquid shares traded on the market and in such case, the compensation shall not be lower than the purchase price of the takeover bid.

The shareholder who after the Offering acquires by purchase, issue or otherwise Tallink Shares that represent at least 9/10 of the share capital of Tallink (majority shareholder), may request the general meeting of shareholders of Tallink to decide on the shares belonging to the minority shareholders being taken over by the majority shareholder in return for fair monetary compensation pursuant to the terms provided in chapter 29¹ of the Commercial Code.

The Offering is a voluntary takeover offer and notwithstanding the results of the Offering, the Offeror has no intention to request the takeover of the remaining Shares pursuant to § 182¹ of the SMA or the provisions of chapter 29¹ of the Commercial Code.

This means that the Tallink shareholders who do not participate in the Offering and sell their Shares to the Offeror shall remain as shareholders of Tallink and can trade in Tallink Shares on the Nasdaq Tallinn and Nasdaq Helsinki Exchange. The Offeror is not planning any changes in the work procedure, election methods, number or persons of the members of the management board or supervisory board of Tallink as a result of the Offering. The management board and supervisory board will continue work after the Offering in the same composition. The election and removal of the members of the management board and supervisory board is done pursuant to the effective articles of association of Tallink and the Commercial Code, as described in chapters 4.2.1 "Management board" and 4.2.2 "Supervisory board."

5.2.4 Employees

The Offeror is not planning to terminate employment relationships with employees of the Tallink group companies as a result of this Offering and even if the employment relationship with a Tallink group company employee is terminated as a result of this Offering, it is subject to the same provisions and rules provided in legal acts for the termination of employment relationships as would apply to the termination of an employment relationship without this Offering. The remuneration and compensation paid to the Tallink employees are determined pursuant to the Employment Contracts Act and (collective) agreements. The articles of association of Tallink do not provide any restrictions for the transfer of Tallink Shares. There are no specific rights attaching to any Tallink Shares, there are also no agreements for the restrictions or regulation of voting rights. The major shareholders of Tallink have concluded a shareholders agreement in August 2006 (amended in December 2012), to which the Offeror is also a party. The main terms of the agreement were published by Tallink in the stock exchange notice of 13 December 2012: Acquiring of qualifying holding and changes to the shareholders agreement (available here: <https://view.news.eu.nasdaq.com/view?id=bab332af2ad98cbdbeeda02b1662a5f99&lang=et>)

Insofar as the Offering is not a mandatory takeover offer, the determination of the Purchase Price is not subject to the requirements in § 174 (2)-(4) of the SMA and § 2 of the Rules.
